

The parish priest, Argenis Torres, pointed out that the atmosphere was of prayer and enthusiasm because there is much need of God and many illnesses, "we have to gather in every respect to cure them before the medicines scarcity. So a prayer is raised to God so that there is discernment". I conclude. KD